SUMMARY: Celebrate before and victory will come after! Contradict your challenges to win.

1 Banking on Smiling

Have you ever seen a bank advert in which people are sad, crying, sleeping or injured?

Negative members cannot attract positive numbers!

In town, people deposit their money in good looking banks and smartly dressed shops while the poor beggars get the puny penny.

No one stores their treasure in a bucket that has holes. Just as orn pockets would indicate you can't handle valuable items; a broken or gloomy personality suggests that you cannot handle people's generosity.

*Don't show your holes;
show your wholeness!*

There is a saying that to get a loan from a bank, you first need to prove that you don't need it! The same is true with life and people in general; to get good things, you first need to prove that you don't need them! Signs of desperation repel people.

2 Damp flower dump

I once felt weighed down by grogginess on realizing that I had to wait 40 minutes in the sun for the next matatu. Wondering how to keep my mind positive, I spotted a pretty orange flower growing in a dirty trench.

The filthy environment had not killed its ability to flower. Instead, it was stretching its four petals as if praising the All-Mighty. Seven years later, I can't remember anything else I saw in the dirty trench.

People remember how your temperament contradicts your challenging environment!

3 Do it Cutely

Flowers offer colourful petals, interesting shapes, sweet scents and sugary nectar to attract busy buzzy bees. You don't want to attract filthy flinchy flies.
